WORTH REREADING ... FROM MSGR. O'GRADY (REPRINTED FROM 2018)

Dear Cursillistas,

I have come to believe and become more aware of how often I am "surprised by Grace" ... by God. Let me share one of those "surprises".

This past summer while sitting in the quiet of the parish church of my home visit in Ireland, I was reading my breviary and it was the feast of St. Augustine. I must confess I did not always read all of the readings but that's another story. This time I read and discovered the prayer of St. Augustine ... and every line was a blessing. I had heard or glimpsed at the prayer before, but now I heard it with my heart. Let me share a few lines from the prayer:

"You called, you shouted, and you broke through my deafness."

"You flashed, you shone, and you dispelled my blindness."

"You touched me, and I burned for your peace."

These lines are embedded in my mind. I had heard them before in bits and pieces ... now I heard them with my heart. I truly can say to God, "You touched me (and you)." I thought of all the other times when he touched me, and the Cursillo experience came to mind ... being introduced to Psalm 103. Also, my 30-day experience with the Ignatian Exercises ... the list is long.

Cecelia tells me she has room in The Voice for the prayer. May it be a blessing for you, too.

God bless,

Father Mike

Late Have I Loved You

Beauty so ancient and so new, late have I loved You!

Lo, You were within, but I outside, seeking there for You, and upon the shapely things You have made I rushed headlong – I, misshapen. You were with me, but I was not with You. They held me back far from You, those things which would have no being, were they not in You.

You called, shouted, broke through my deafness; You flared, blazed, banished my blindness; You lavished Your fragrance, I gasped; and now I pant for You; I tasted You, and now I hunger and thirst; You touched me, and I burned for Your peace.

Make a friend, be a friend, bring a friend to Christ!

SUPPORT CURSILLO AT MT. CLARET

We have all heard the "Sermon on the Amount." We know the beauty of Mt. Claret and the legacy of Cursillo in Phoenix. It is hard to imagine having Cursillo any where else. Yes, of course, Cursillo weekends would be a life-giving and God-serving part of the Movement in Phoenix if held almost anywhere, but those of us who lived our weekends at Mt. Claret know the special meaning of "going up to the mountain".

Your Help Is Needed! The Cursillo Movement runs primarily from your generous contributions and fundraisers. Won't you please prayerfully consider how you can help? How about $5.00 or $10.00 a month? Help us safeguard the vision of the Claretian priests who were the caretakers of the Movement in Phoenix in the beginning, and all those Cursillistas, along with Msgr. McMahon, whose stewardship (time, talent, and treasure) and love over the years were instrumental in the beautiful Holy ground that is Mt. Claret Retreat Center today.

Here are two ways to donate: automatically at easytithe.com/Cursillo or by making checks out to the Cursillo Movement and mailing to Cursillo, Mt. Claret Retreat Center, 4633 N 54th St, Phoenix, AZ 85018. And no worries, you will be tapped up for your talent at upcoming fundraisers, too!

Please prayerfully consider serving and supporting your Cursillo Community.

FROM THE LAY DIRECTOR

COME TO THE TABLE!

In my In-Laws dining room there's a metal relief on the wall which has always intrigued me. The caption beneath it says: "La Ultima Cena de Jesus". At this special place where several generations of our family have gathered for so many meals, birthdays and holidays over the years, I've always felt a sense of comfort knowing that Jesus is present at the table with us.

In our home, and perhaps in many of yours, we have an image of Leonardo Di Vinci's "Last Supper" hanging over our kitchen and dining area. I remember learning in art class how all of the lines in Leonardo's masterpiece draw our attention to Christ, who sits at the center with a background of light behind Him. But the Last Supper is not the only important meal found in scripture. The Old and New Testaments are full of stories that take place around dining, particularly in Saint Luke's Gospel. I recently heard Dr. Scott Hahn refer to Luke's narrative of the Good News as "Banquet Theology" because so much of Christ's teaching is revealed at table. Jesus dines with sinners and tax collectors, at the homes of Pharisees, of disciples, and friends such as Martha, Mary, and Lazarus.

In our hectic and busy lifestyles today, we often take our meals on the run. Cup holders have become an essential element in our vehicles of transportation because often we're so focused on what we have to do, or where we have to go, that we don't want to stop. It's not surprising that experts have said that more than ever the family dinner gathering is increasingly essential to peace and harmony in our homes. In this culture where so many of us, and especially young people, retreat into the isolation of our electronic devices of distraction, the dinner table is an opportunity to interact and have actual live conversation about our day. When we say grace before eating it gives us a chance to turn our focus from where we have to go, and with a spirit of thanksgiving, to stop and take notice of Christ's presence where we are.

In our Church family we are all invited to come to the wedding feast of the Lamb at Sunday Mass, and gather with the saints at the sacrificial table of the altar. Our Cursillo community is also a family joined together by God's Grace. I was very encouraged by the joy and energy witnessed when we got together at the Orientation for the upcoming men's and women's weekends recently. There was an excitement in the air from the teams in formation and sponsors. I could see that same excitement begin to form in the candidates that will soon be joining our movement.

I've been blessed over the years to experience that same joy and energy when our Cursillo family gathers for our own special banquet, the annual Cena De Colores. After a hiatus of a few years, the Cena is back and you are all invited to celebrate with our community on June 1st, 2019 at Mount Claret. The Cena De Colores is a wonderful opportunity to connect with our Cursillo brothers and sisters and to raise much needed funds to support our movement. We also invite you to be a part of the Cena team and donate your time and talents to make this year's celebration a great success. One thing that I've always felt about the Cena De Colores is that, like Di Vinci's painting, Christ is present at the center of the feast, and we the volunteers and attendees are a family focused on serving Him. In many ways we are like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, and Jesus is made known to us, in the breaking of the bread.

PIETY - STUDY - ACTION WITNESS

De Colores!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I want to pose a few thoughts to ponder this Lenten season as we approach Holy Week, the Passion of our Lord and His Glorious Resurrection.

First, think about how blessed we are to be living during this time in the history of the Church. Some may say that we are living in a time of despair when the church attendance is shrinking and the youth in our communities are claiming to be "None's", meaning no faith at all. This is the reality of our society and culture today, but St. Paul reminds us that where sin abounds, grace abounds even more. If we believe the words of St. Paul, then we have an abundance of grace more than possibly ever in the history of the church flowing from the heart of God.

Second, please reflect on the rich blessing we have as Catholics united with the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church and how she is guiding us on a 40-day journey through this season of Lent.

Lent for me is an annual reflection of my baptismal promises and what I learned through my Cursillo. I made Cursillo #712 in September 2004. Since that time, Lent has become so meaningful, and I utilize these forty days to deeply evaluate my tripod of Piety, Study, and Action.

This year I had an interesting question from a friend just before Lent began. He is a non-Catholic/Protestant and he asked, "What are you giving up for Lent?"

The question caught me off guard and I didn't really have a good answer. It did however make we think. I remember asking myself, what am I giving up for Lent and why? I gave him a quick short answer and brushed it off for a few days.

I kept thinking about his question and it began to bother me. I couldn't get it out of my mind. What am I willing to give up for Jesus? Like Job, could I give up my family, my money, my health? How much does Jesus really mean to me? How much does He mean to you?

After thinking about this for over three weeks I believe this question was posed not for my friend to know but for me to know. My friend was probably poking fun at our tradition of Lent and to some degree he may have been testing me, but God was using him to get to me. My prayer time has revealed that my friend didn't really want to know what I was giving up for Lent and he probably has never thought about it again, but I have.

God grabbed my attention and challenged my commitment through a simple question asked by a man that has no idea what Lent is even about. I marvel the way God can take any situation and make it His own. I am a cradle Catholic and have lived through decades of Lenten seasons, but I can honestly say that since my Cursillo in 2004 I have grown to embrace and understand that Lent is not about giving something up, but it is about letting someone (Jesus) in. I wish I could have given a better answer to my friend and really knocked his socks off about what it means to live and journey through Lent as a Catholic but that's not what this situation was about.

God opened my eyes to realize Lent is about Him not me. My prayers, fasting, and almsgiving are to unite me to Jesus in such a personal way that I can't do through any other means. This may seem to you so elementary in the faith but to me I lived it and it is real. Denying myself pleasures of life allows me to take up my cross and follow Jesus for real. It's not something soft, easy, and smooth but something hard, real, and meaningful. My heavy crosses draw me in to Jesus on the cross. Jesus gave up everything to be one of us and I can't fathom the depth of His sacrifice on the cross but that is what Lent calls us to do.

Finally, as we continue our journey of Lent to the Passion, Death and Resurrection of our Lord, I pray we tap into God's grace like never before and count our blessing as Catholic Cursillistas holding strong to the teachings and tradition of our Catholic Church. Like times of old, God raised up the greatest Saints when the Church needed it the most. We are all called to be Saints, let us all strive to live in Grace so to die in Grace through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

GENERAL PRAYER PALANCA REQUESTS

There is a prayer list on the website that will be updated weekly with your prayer requests and 5th day notices. On this page, you will find a form to send in your request, or send it directly to info@phoenixcursillo.com. People will remain on the prayer list and on the 5th day list for one month. Resubmit if you would like to have the name remain on the list.

PHOENIX CURSILLO DATABASE

A significant amount of volunteer time has been spent maintaining and updating the database of Cursillistas. If you know someone who is not getting the Voice, please have them contact the Cursillo office.

Please help us keep the Cursillo records up to date. If you change your address, email, phones, etc., please email the updated information to info@phoenixcursillo.com. THANKS! PS... Info on the database is never given out or sold. It is used only for sending Cursillo news such as the Voice and contacting persons for Team Formation.
